Everybody is well, as far as I know. Master Willie Erwin is going to the Graded School at Pendleton. Mr. Arthur Erwin has a new buggy.

The protracted meeting at Asbury last week was a success. There were several converts and several joined the church. We think the Asbury folks should be proud of their preacher.

There was a pienic at this place last Saturday afternoon. All enjoyed it. It was a pienic to be remembered, and the supper was best of all.

The small grain crop is fine this year. If nothing happens, everybody will make lots of wheat. I hope the rolling mill will be established at Anderson.

Mr. S. C. Horres and Mr. I. I. Staven.

Mr. S. C. George and Mr. J. L. Steven-son have established a sawmill near this place, and are going to put a gin up also. We wish them much success, as both are We wish the bound bushing men.

Corner Items.

Nothing having been heard from us through the columns of your raper. Mr. Editor, for the past tew we-ks I take the liberty of writing a few items in order to let ail whom it may concern know that we the proud and independent people of the Corner Township are abreast of the times, and are last climbing to the top round of the ladder instead of sinking into a state of despondency and oblivion. If on some of these bright beautiful mornings one should make a survey and inspection of our neighborhood, he would be surprised at the many improvements that are rapidly taking place. For instance, our roads are in finer condition at present than they have ever been before, made so by the strenuous efforts of Mr. Sam. Jackson and Mr. J. W. Bowie. Again, we see that the land is being more thoroughly prepared for cultivation than has ever bean done previous to this. The best fields of small grain we have seen in this County are growing right around us. Next, we have never before in the history of our neighborhood seen so many new dwellings going up as there are at the present, which go to show that our people in spite of the war and hard times, are making money; for without money it would be impossible for such buildings as these to be erected. We could go on enumerating if space and time would permit, for there are many other. through the columns of your caper, could go on enumerating if space and time would permit, for there are many other improvements too numerous to mention, which of course contributes their part to our progress and advancement Mr. A. This beautiful, bright morning, when we look around us and sochature in a dorned in all its spring loveliness, our minds revert to the scenes that are being could aimest at our moors by war, war, cruel relentless war, and contrasting the one with the other, we wonder why men, human beings, will do so? Why this bloodshed? this destruction of life and bloodshed? this destruction of life and property? Why does man thus recklessly and rithlessly, without the lear of God, thus provoke war? Why do not all men see alike and not trespass upon the rights and liberties of others not regarding the golden rule? What a beautiful world would we have and peaceful, if neighbors, as well as nations would respect the feelings and rights of others, thus avoiding all the hard thoughts and feelings and blows that inevitably follow a disregard of the rights of others.

WE hope the people understand that our taking these Doctors into the business doesn't mean that they are all to live off the Firm. The Managers and Clerks, of course, are dependent upon the success and profits of the institution, as they have no other visible means of support. These Doctors, however, get their living physicing folks, and their principal bases of supplies are those who imagine they are sick.

Our purpose is this: The good old days are past. Competition and new methods have done away entirely with the large profit feature in all lines of business. It is the volume, properly managed and directed, that leads to success in any line; and we hope by a community of capital and influence to so increase the volume of our business as to compensate for the decrease in net profits.

We shall carry EVERYTHING in the line, Wholesale and Retail, and arrange so that you can get what you want from us any time-day or night.

We confidently ask our share of the patronage.
